Friday, 15 March 2019 13:05 WIB

Humas UPNVJ - In order to broaden students' insights about good management, the Faculty of Economics and Business UPN "Veteran" Jakarta held a public lecture entitled "Management Practices in SOEs in Facing Industry 4.0" and invited Dr. Febriyanto SE, MM - Main Director of PT Pertani (Persero) Tbk as a guest speaker. This public lecture was held at the Bhinneka Tunggal Ika Auditorium, 4th Floor, Thursday 14 March 2019.

Drs. Nobelson MM, FEB deputy dean for student affairs and cooperation gave remarks as well as opening the public lecture today, in his remarks he hoped "Hopefully this public lecture will run smoothly and can be utilized especially during discussions, hopefully children can get a lot of information from our sources." he said.

Dr. Febriyanto SE, MM, in delivering lectures in general, also gave tips and tricks to become a successful young generation. He advised "As human beings we must have a process, there are times when we are ordinary employees and there are times when we become leaders. If we become employees, be lovable employees so that many people can like them. This activity was attended by 200 participants who were active students of the UPNVJ Faculty of Economics and Business.
