

Increasing Student Potential, BEM UPNVJ Holds PILMAPRES 2019

Sunday, 31 March 2019 01:32 WIB

UPNVJ Public Relations - In order to maximize the potential of students, the UPNVJ Student Executive Board held a 2019 Outstanding Student election with the theme "Indonesia Goes To Sustainable Development Goals " which was held at the Rectorate Building Floor 4 UPN "Veteran" Jakarta, Friday (29/03/ 19).

This Mapres election was attended by 4 participants, namely: Keisha Daniela - Medical Education Faculty of Medicine, Marshela Arianty - Public Health Faculty of Health Sciences, Evan Filbert - Industrial Engineering Faculty of Engineering, and Nacita Putri Anzelia - Development Economics Faculty of Economics and Business. Also present were all Ormawa, UKM and the UPNVJ Association.

After going through a fairly rigorous assessment process by looking at several criteria such as, writing which includes scientific papers, high school summaries in English and also speaking which includes how to present high school courses, presentations of high school summaries in English, presentations of achievements and achievements as well as video profiles that Judged by judges who are experts in their respective fields. Then Evan Filbert, a representative from the Faculty of Engineering, was chosen as the first winner, Nacita, the FEB representative, was the second winner, Marshela, the Fikes representative, was the third winner, and Keisha Daniela FK was the favorite winner.

