

KORPRI 44TH ANNIVERSARY OF UPN "VETERAN" JAKARTA

Monday, 11 January 2016 11:41 WIB

In order to celebrate the 44th anniversary of KORPRI, UPNVJ held a Family Gathering which was held at the South Kalimantan Pavilion, TMII on Saturday, 09 January 2016 which was attended by around 500 employees/lecturers of UPN "Veteran" Jakarta.

The series of events which started at 07.00 WIB and were opened by the Chancellor, in his remarks Eddy S. Siradj said that this activity had the aim of strengthening family ties between employees, establishing togetherness, increasing welfare and honing the talents possessed among employees.

The series of events began with joint gymnastics and continued with a leisurely walk around the TMII Area while at the same time seeing the beauty of TMII. The excitement of the competition made by the committee also became a series of events on that day. Some of the competitions are PBB (March and Row Training), creations of Satker/Faculty which showcase employee creativity, including lip sync competitions, fashion shows, comedy and group dances. Where all participants are a combination or individual of UPNVJ employees. It's amazing that behind the hard work at work, hidden talents are hidden by each individual. The event was interspersed with the distribution of door prizes which ended at 14.00 WIB
