To defend the country in the future, we must create an Indonesia that is capable of meeting the needs of its people." he said

Therefore, State Defense should be an extraordinary compulsory subject that attracts many students.

In addition, he also conveyed the six core values of public morality according to Jonathan Haidt (2012): care - caring about dangers that threaten common safety, fairness - a sense of justice and decency, liberty - freedom by upholding basic human rights, loyalty - allegiance on institutions, traditions and consensus, authority - respect for authority that is mutually agreed upon and sancity - namely respect for values that are considered the most "sacred" (main).
