HumasUPNVJ - Still in an effort to show concern for UPN Veteran Jakarta alumni by always prioritizing the identity of defending the country in helping to ease the burden for those directly affected by the Covid-19 pandemic outbreak, especially for the medical team as the frontline. The D-III Accounting Alumni Association of the Faculty of Economics and Business again distributed donations in the form of Hand Sanitizers and Early Protective Equipment (PPE) to several referral hospitals for COVID-19 patients last Saturday, April 11 2020.

Based on a report received by the UPN Veteran Jakarta public relations team on Tuesday (14/04/20), the D-III Accounting Alumni Association distributed aid to several hospitals, including Persahabatan Hospital and Tarakan Hospital.

Previously, all UPN Veteran Jakarta alumni associations had also provided assistance in the form of basic food logistics and some basic food for students who still lived in boarding houses on campus, distributed complete Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) and Medical Equipment, disinfectants and hand sanitizers at Rs. Pasar Minggu and Rs. Budi Asih.

Hopefully the various efforts made by the UPN Veterans Jakarta Alumni Association can trigger a spirit of sharing from all of us.
