

UPN Veteran Jakarta Enters the Top 10 Campuses with the Highest Average SBMPTN Score in 2016

Friday, 01 July 2016 10:46 WIB

JAKARTA, KOMPAS.com - The 2016 SBMPTN Joint Selection Results were announced simultaneously on Tuesday (28/6/2016). A number of campuses "dominate" the highest average scores from the selection participants.

The 2016 SBMPTN divided participants into two exam groups, namely Sciencetek and Social Sciences.

The following are the top 10 campuses receiving the highest average scores for the Sainstek group:

1. Bandung Institute of Technology (ITB), with an average score of 700.10.
2. University of Indonesia (UI), with an average score of 667.44.
3. Gadjah Mada University, with an average score of 648.46.
4. Ten November Institute of Technology (ITS), with an average score of 647.54.
5. Diponegoro University (Undip), with an average score of 620.33.
6. Padjadjaran University, with an average score of 618.24.
7. Airlangga University (Unair), with an average score of 616.67.
8. Bogor Agricultural Institute (IPB), with an average score of 613.68.
9. Eleven March State University (UNS) with an average score of 611.00.
10. UPN Yogyakarta, with an average score of 606.68.

As for the Soshum group, the top 10 are:

1. University of Indonesia (UI), with an average score of 669.52.
2. Gadjah Mada University, with an average score of 652.92.
3. Bandung Institute of Technology (ITB), with an average score of 651.97.
4. Padjadjaran University, with an average score of 621.78.
5. Diponegoro University (Undip), with an average score of 617.99.
6. Airlangga University (Unair), with an average score of 616.66.
7. Brawijaya University, with an average score of 606.14.
8. UPN Yogyakarta, with an average score of 598.51.
9. UPN Jakarta, with an average score of 597.33.
10. Jakarta State University, with an average score of 594.19.

source: <http://edukasi.kompas.com/read/2016/06/28/15215521/10.besar.kampus.dengan.rata-rata.dinding.tertinggi.sbmptn.2016>