Saturday, 25 July 2020 15:52 WIB

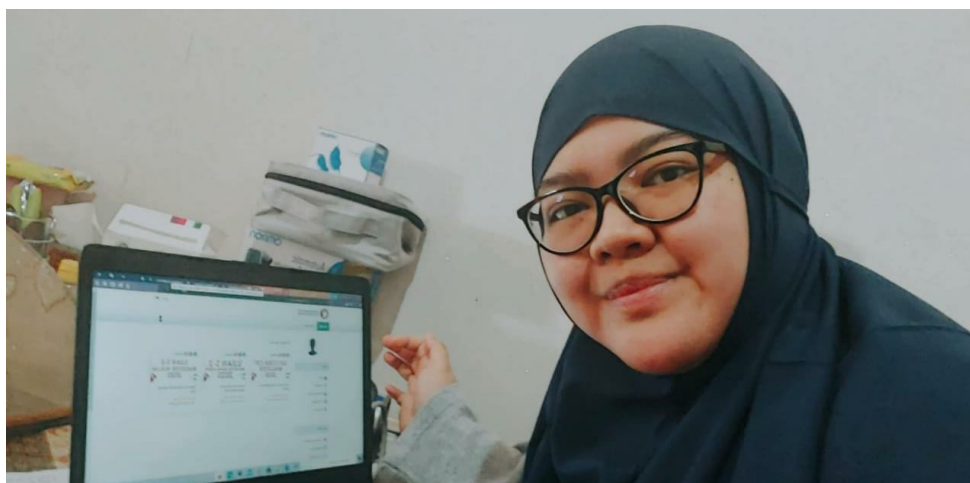

HumasUPNVJ - As many as 43 people today, Saturday (25/07/20) took part in the selection of new student admissions for the Masters Program (S-2) Law and Management Independent Selection (SEMA) UPN Veteran Jakarta 2020.

Unlike the previous year, this year's selection was carried out online with two exams, namely the Computer Based Test (CBT) and also an online interview.

Fajar Nugroho as the Data Processing division in the new student admissions process said "this year an online selection was carried out with two types of exams, namely the CBT Online Exam through cbt.upnvj.ac.id with an exam in the form of an essay and an online interview exam with the available application, namely zoom meetings and google meet.

Fajar also said that the day before the implementation and 30 minutes before starting the exam he and his team had already carried out a trial run so that there would be no interruptions in the implementation. Participants are also required to take a selfie as proof of attendance.

Technically, the participants were divided from the Master of Law with a total of 19 people and the Master of Management participants 24 people. Participants take the CBT exam first with a case study of 5 questions and are followed by an interview with the examiner with a time of 10 to 15 minutes per person.

According to the data received by the PR team this year, the examiner from the Faculty of Economics and Business is Dr. Dianwicakasih Ariefiara, SE, Ak., M.Ak., CA. (Dean of FEB), Dr. Ni Putu Eka Widiastuti, SE, M.Si, CSRS., Dr. Desmintari, SE, MM., Dr. Miguna Astuti, S.Si, MM and examiners from the Faculty of Law are Dr. Abdul Halim, M.Ag (Dean of FH), Dr. Suherman, SH, LL.M.
