HumasUPNVJ - The big family of UPN Veteran Jakarta is again holding a halal bihalal in the midst of the Covid-19 pandemic. There is no significant difference from last year's difference, the only difference is that the implementation is carried out in parallel, online and offline.

The online Halal Bihalal was attended by all lecturers while the offline Halal Bihalal was held in the ceremonial field in front of the dr. Wahidin Sudiro Husono (17/5) who was attended by university leaders, education staff and lecturers with additional duties while adhering to the Covid-19 health protocol, namely wearing masks, maintaining distance, not making direct contact and providing personal sanitizers / washing hands after activities .

Erna Hernawati happily gave a warm welcome to all UPNVJ employees, both those who took part in the Halal Bihalal online and offline, "Sorry for all the mistakes and mistakes both actions and words. Especially in my leadership at UPNVJ so far, of course, many things may not please all ladies and gentlemen. Of course during the time we are always together, in order to carry out our respective duties as lecturers, lecturers with additional assignments and educational staff, as UPNVJ members, when we interact in one week at least forty hours, we spend time together carry out obligations. As an employee, it is inevitable that friction, contact and other things that might offend, cause discomfort and so on, I hope that today, in an atmosphere of Siaturrahmi, we will all be given the breadth of heart to be able to forgive and make our hearts pure again." he said

"After carrying out the full month of Ramadan fasting followed by celebrating victory, in the near future we will enter the new academic year 2021/2022, a year which is certainly full of challenges, full of improvement targets from the Ministry, let's all set good intentions in Work. Let's improve the quality of work, more work and also be more productive.â€ Erna continued

This year's Halal Bihalal was also filled with lectures from Ust. Dr. M. Nurul Irfan, M.Ag who discussed the application of the Prophet's traits into everyday life.
