After the announcement of IISMA, the Office of International Affairs (KUI) of UPNVJ held an online briefing for the 12 participants who qualified for the IISMA program. The briefing was attended by the Rector of UPN Veterans Jakarta along with the Vice Rectors.

Rector of UPN Veterans Jakarta Prof. Dr. Erna Hernawati, Ak, CPMA, CA, CGOP gave a message to the 12 IISMA participants to maintain the good name of UPNVJ and be committed in participating in the IISMA program to completion.

"This is one of the keys to open the door of opportunity for you to get an LPDP scholarship if you want to continue your Master degree at the campus that you dream of," concluded Erna.

Vice Rector of UPNVJ Dr. Antar Venus, M.A, Comm also advised the 12 IISMA participants to be active in various activities, especially in cultural exchange activities to introduce Indonesian culture to the international world by using social media such as making video vlogs during overseas activities.

"Please, just record your life there (abroad), what the academic system is like, learn what the difference is with Indonesia (in general) then make a report and also be active in cultural exchange activities so they can be turned into credit," Venus advised those 12 IISMA participants.

The activity closed with a group photo with all 26 participants of the zoom meetings.
