

The Presence of a Museum on a University Campus Becomes an Important Icon

Wednesday, 15 June 2022 20:45 WIB

UPNVJ PR - During a visit to Kazakhstan from 8-15 June 2022, both to the University Ablai Khan International Relations and World Language, in Almaty and at Eurasian National University (ENU), in Nur Sultan, Kazakhstan, the first time will begin by showing the Museum on campus which describes the journey History of the University, City and Country.

At Ablai Khan University the museum guide conveyed how the leaders, heroes and community leaders of their country realized that after successfully fighting to free their people from the shackles of colonialism, how to run the wheels of government or their nation in the future was to build educational institutions.

On that occasion, it was conveyed that Ablai Khan, a Kazak hero who bravely faced the occupation of a nation that is very well known in world history such as the Mongols with the strength of Zengis Khan's army, China with the courage of Ku Belay Khan and Russia with a number of Tsars and other nations several hundred even thousands of years ago.

From this explanation, it can be noted that the campus named Ablai Khan is a manifestation of character, concern with education for later generations, expertise and maintaining the dignity of the nation are some of the important elements that can be imitated by students and other academics.

In the Museum, historical objects and cultural arts are also stored, such as photos of heroes, genealogies, manuscripts, historical trips, souvenirs from various figures who visited from various countries. In order to strengthen cooperation and introduce Indonesia more deeply, we hope that Indonesia can send important and high-value cultural objects to be stored in the Ablai Khan University International Relations and World Languages "Museum.

On Tuesday, June 14, during a visit to the Eurasian National University (ENU) in Nur Sutan City, Kazakstan, the Rector and members of the UPN VJ delegation were welcomed by Dr. Erkin Ongarbayev, Vice Rector of Academics, Deans, Director of International Cooperation and Lecturers. In terms of quality, ENU is the second best University after Al Faraby University in Almaty and has a world ranking of QS 277.

In the first occasion of the visit, the Museum became one of the initial events. The ancient history of the Kazak nation as a developed country of Kazakhstan was also conveyed by the Museum guide. The existence of a Museum at the University is an important matter for Higher Education institutions in Kazakhstan, which is not only to welcome guests from outside the University, but it is also important for students and their academics to maintain historical values "and struggle for their nation to move forward. a bright future with fighting values.

