Saturday, 16 July 2022 18:50 WIB

HumasUPNVJ - PORSIMNAS WIMAYA 2022 was held collaboratively and simultaneously by three universities in different regions, namely UPN "Veteran" East Java, UPN "Veteran" Yogyakarta and UPN "Veteran" Jakarta. PORSIMNAS WIMAYA 2022 involved more than 2,000 students and lecturers from both the UPN "Veteran" environment itself and other invited universities.

With 20 competitions held for 10 days in three different regions, namely East Java, Yogyakarta and Jakarta. Therefore, PORSIMNAS WIMAYA became the first event of UPN "Veteran" with sports, arts and scientific branches simultaneously in three different provinces.

Judging from the various activities that have been and are taking place, on Saturday (16/7) a branch of the essay and speech category scientific competition was officially opened by the Head of the UPNVYK State Defense Study Center, Bambang Wicaksono.

Bambang Wicaksono explained that this PORSIMNAS WIMAYA activity is indeed an activity that has been around for a long time with the aim of building close relations between the three UPN Veterans throughout Indonesia, "This activity is a routine activity that we have been carrying out for a long time, this activity is aimed at nothing but the to strengthen the relationship between us all, UPN Veterans throughout Indonesia. UPN Veterans must unite, together color Indonesian education," said Bambang

The UPNVYK State Defending Campus accompanied by their respective companions from UPNVJ and UPNVJT also advised that the participants from the three UPN Veterans be able to compete in a healthy manner.
