Public Health Festival 3.0

Monday, 11 December 2017 | 14.04

The UPN "Veteran" Jakarta Public Health Student Association (HMKM) held the "Public Health Festival 3.0" event which was the culmination of a series of activities carried out by HMKM at Mall One Belpark, Friday (8/12). The theme raised in this event is SAVIOR (Save Our Nature and Let's Live Healthier).

Previously, the Faculty of Health (FIKES) had carried out HIV/AIDS fundraising activities, the proceeds of which were donated to the Pelita Ilmu Foundation, sweeping garbage and installing hand sanitizers in the canteen area of the Faculty of Health. Apart from that, there are also various internal and external competition activities such as trash can decorating competitions, futsal competitions, badminton competitions, and closing with the highlight of the Public Health Festival 3.0 which presents singer Vidi Aldiano.

In this top event, Faculty of Health students presented speakers from YPI (Pelita Ilmu Foundation) which takes care of people living with HIV and AIDS. Approximately 500 participants took part in enlivening this event including UPN "Veteran" Jakarta students and the general public. (Anisa's report)
