HumasUPNVJ - The collaboration event for the 2022 National Student Sports, Arts, and Scientific Week (PORSIMNAS WIMAYA) was officially closed by Prof. Dr. Erna Hernawati, Rector of UPN Veterans Jakarta (UPNVJ) on Sunday (24/7/22).

The activity, which took place in the main field of UPNVJ, Pondok pumpkin Campus, was attended by all leaders and representatives of the three UPN students throughout Indonesia.

"I convey my appreciation to the three friends of UPN because with the creativity that is channeled in organizing this collaboration, it can be carried out very well. I am very sure that students have unlimited creativity and on this occasion it is not only creativity that can be channeled but also helps students find new relationships," said the Rector.

Various performances of student creativity were presented that added to the euphoria of the collaboration event, ranging from attractive performances from the three UPN leaders, dance and music performances from students to guest star Raissa Anggiani, a songwriter and singer as well as a special guest star singer and songwriter, Marcello Tahitoe who is familiarly called Ello.

This special performance is presented as the closing of the prestigious PORSIMNAS WIMAYA 2022 event which is expected to trigger student creativity in the fields of sports, arts and science.
