Prof. Erna, the Rector of UPNVJ in his speech gave directions to all participants, "In this socialization, the differences between the old and new ministerial ministers will be presented as well as what the focus of this ministry is. In the preparation of this SKP must be properly supervised by university leaders. UPNVJ has carried out various models to continue to be perfected to produce justice for all employees so that later there will be no demotivation between employees.

We really want to give rights to employees fairly according to the performance that has been done. I hope this socialization will be an incentive and can motivate you to understand in more detail about the SKP because it will be related to the performance allowances for the ladies and gentlemen in the UPNVJ environment. Hopefully it can be used properly," said the Rector.

Sinta Ayu and Ira Herawati from the Human Resources Bureau of the Ministry of Education, Culture, Research and Technology explained related to the legal basis, important things in the PAN & RB Regulation Number 6 of 2022, an overview, performance planning, periodic performance feedback, evaluation employee performance, follow-up and information related to employee transfers (assisted/study assignments).
