dr. Ria, Deputy Chancellor for Student Affairs and Cooperation conveyed the intent and purpose of the UPNVJ Public Relations team's visit to the Bekasi City Government, "We know that the Bekasi City Government has succeeded in being ranked 1st in handling PPID in West Java - getting an award for public information disclosure, therefore, we took the initiative to get a lot of insight from the Bekasi City Government, especially in the work program of its Public Relations section. Starting from the process of working on PPID, ULT, Public Relations, infrastructure, programs, organizational structure and as a whole from the Bekasi City Government, especially for public service openness," explained dr. Ria

Head of Public Relations Section of Bekasi City Regional Secretariat, Dra. Amsiyah, explained in detail regarding the openness of public information in the Bekasi City Government, "We have been awarded the Best City of Provincial Level Public Information Transparency for four years in a row. As we know, people out there really need valid information from the Public Relations of each agency. We need to know that there is some information that we can share, there is also information that is internal in nature, everything has a mechanism," said Dra. Amsiyah

The activity continued with a discussion session and sharing session from the Bekasi City Government team and the UPNVJ Public Relations team.

"The provision of public information that must be announced, the provision of public information that must be provided and announced is carried out through the Bekasi City PPID website , besides that we also have an applicant service desk in our office. So not only through online but face to face as well. PPID in its standard of office are officials from each agency and all of them are inseparable from the legal basis of PPID. The four fields in the PPID that are mandatory in the structure are the PLID Secretariat, the Data Management and Information Classification Sector, the Information and Documentation Services Sector and the Information Dispute Facilitation Sector, explained Diah Pranata Public Relations Sub Coordinator of Internal Documentation.
