Not only telling about the preparation, but Uchi also talked about the ups and downs and pinned a lot of hopes on his comrades on campus, "My ups and downs in this world championship are of course filled with many beautiful things, of course there are more joys, because I am very proud of the opportunity given by Indonesia so that I can become one of the lucky citizens of approximately 260,000,000 other Indonesian citizens. I hope that from my short story, there will be many other friends out there who can be motivated and can always work for the nation and especially for our beloved campus, UPN Veteran Jakarta. And hopefully the UPNVJ campus can always help us by providing various supports," he concluded enthusiastically.
