HumasUPNVJ - Based on the results of the announcement by the SNPMB-BP3 Committee, it was stated that 2,002 prospective students passed the Computer-Based Writing Examination (UTBK) Joint Selection Based Test (SNBT) 2023 UPN "Veteran" Jakarta (UPNVJ).

"As many as 2,002 prospective students have passed the 21 undergraduate study programs and 5 D3 study programs at UPNVJ. For those who have not passed the UTBK SNBT 2023, there are still opportunities to study at UPNVJ through the UPNVJ SEMA and West SMMPTN routes," said Dr. R. Dudy Heryadi, Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs through his interview with the public relations team, Wednesday (21/6/2023).

Dudy said that there was an increase in the interest of prospective students to study at UPNVJ from last year. Last year UPNVJ had an interest of 30,447 currently UPNVJ's interest reached 32,858 people. This can be seen from the number of UTBK SNBT 2023 participants who chose study programs at UPNVJ.

UPNVJ is included in the top 10 state universities with the highest average 2023 UTBK SNBT received, namely 811.81 for the Bachelor of Medicine Study Program.

Based on the highest interest data, there are three study programs with the most interest namely Bachelor of Communication Science with total interest of 3,728 followed by Bachelor of Medicine with total interest of 3,175 and Bachelor of Management with total interest of 3,056.

For those who are not lucky in the UTBK-SNBT route, UPNVJ is still opening registration through the Independent Selection and West SMMPTN routes until June 27 2023. Registration for the selection is done online through the website penmaru.upnvj.ac.id.
