HumasUPNVJ - One of the strategies carried out by the UPN Veteran Jakarta Community Development and Service Institute (LPPM UPNVJ) to carry out the mandate for the development of Research and Community Service for lecturers and students within UPNVJ is to strengthen the ecosystem and culture of research and community service .

Every year, LPPM UPNVJ organizes a Research and Community Service Week (Research and Abdimas Week) to disseminate the results of research and community service for UPNVJ lecturers as well as reach out to various groups including the community, media, government, and business, as well as other universities. But not only that, more knowledge about defending the country for UPNVJ students.

UPNVJ Chancellor, Anter Venus said that this year, UPNVJ intends to go further than just dissemination; UPNVJ will continue to build and strengthen the spirit of defending the country through research and community service.

Departing from this wish, this year's Lit and Community Service Week of LPPM UPNVJ held a State Defense Seminar with the theme, "Strengthening State Defense through Research and Community Service". (25/8)

The activity took place in a hybrid , zoom and took place directly at the Bhinneka Tunggal Ika UPNVJ Auditorium by presenting Dr. Hendro Widjanarko, SE, MM – Head of LPPM UPN Veterans Yogyakarta and Prof. Dr. Ir. Teguh Soedarto, MP - Professor of UPN Veterans East Java, besides that, the Chair of the UPNVJ LPPM, Dr. Sri Lestari Wahyuningroem which was attended by approximately one hundred participants including students and lecturers.
