"All preparations have been carried out optimally, hopefully it will be carried out well and everything can run smoothly without any significant obstacles," hoped Fajar.

On this occasion, Fajar also appealed to the participants to follow the rules in terms of the documents they must bring, the clothes they wear and the anticipation of the exam time so that there is no delay in arriving at the exam location.

"We urge participants to pay close attention to the exam location, because we have two exam locations. "Make sure you bring your exam documents, dress appropriately and make sure you arrive at the location 1 hour before the exam," he added.
