The Independent Student Exchange Program has provided a golden opportunity for us to learn, exchange experiences, and enrich our insights, as well as strengthen ties of brotherhood, get to know cultural diversity, and understand various perspectives from our brothers and sisters throughout the country. Over the past few months, we have gone through various unforgettable experiences. From lectures, discussions, to cultural and social activities, everything has taught us valuable lessons. We learn to respect each other, work together, and respect differences. "We also learn to know ourselves better and the potential we have," he said
