

Meet the Indonesian Deputy Ambassador at the Indonesian Embassy in Manila, UPNVJ Discusses Educational Cooperation

Thursday, 01 August 2024 15:29 WIB

Public Relations UPNVJ - Deputy Indonesian Ambassador to the Philippines at the Indonesian Embassy in Manila, Dodo Sudrajat, received a visit from the National Development University "Veteran" Jakarta, represented by the Head of the UPNVJ International Affairs Office, Bambang Susanto on July 22 2024.

Vice Ambassador Dado conveyed that UPNVJ was trying to carry out internationalization by opening international cooperation networks with various universities and institutions in the Philippines.

There is also UPNVJ collaboration with the Indonesian Embassy in Manila in the form of student internship activities, community service, and several others in the form of studies or research on relations between Indonesia and the Philippines.

Apart from the Indonesian Embassy in Manila, UPNVJ also collaborates with De La Salle College of Saint Benilde in Manila and Central Mindanao Colleges (CMC) in Mindanao. UPNVJ has signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with the leadership of the two universities.

UPNVJ is also currently exploring with Ateneo De Manila University, with the hope that some form of collaboration can be realized.

Vice Ambassador Dado expressed his gratitude to UPNVJ for successfully collaborating with a number of higher education institutions in the Philippines.

UPNVJ will continue to strengthen cooperation in the education sector, so that later it can produce concrete programs, which in turn will also have an impact on strengthening bilateral relations between Indonesia and the Philippines.

Export tanggal : Thursday, 01 August 2024 Pukul 21:16:55 WIB.

Exported dari [<https://upnvj.ac.id/en/berita/2024/08/meet-the-vice-ambassador-ri-at-the-manila-embassy-upnvj-discuss-education-cooperation.html>]