

Islamic Economics Study Program FEB UPNVJ Achieves Excellent Accreditation

Monday, 26 August 2024 12:06 WIB

Public RelationsUPNVJ – The Islamic Economics Study Program of the Faculty of Economics and Business UPN "Veteran" Jakarta has recently achieved superior accreditation from the accreditation body LAMEMBA. This achievement marks a major step in the institution's commitment to providing high-quality education, especially in the field of Islamic economics. This superior accreditation is a recognition of the quality of education, teaching, and management of the study program. The assessment team of the LAMEMBA accreditation body appreciated various aspects of the Islamic Economics Study Program FEB UPNVJ, including the relevant curriculum, adequate supporting facilities, and the quality of lecturers and research conducted.

Dean of FEB UPNVJ, Jubaedah stated, " This UNGGUL accreditation is a reflection of the performance of the entire academic community that identifies strengths and weaknesses and formulates strategic steps for future improvements. This means that the accreditation we have obtained is the success of joint efforts and relentless dedication. Accreditation is an important step to ensure the quality and excellence of education offered to students, as well as to meet the standards set by the LAMEMBA accreditation body," he said.

"UNGGUL accreditation is not the end of the study program's journey, but rather the beginning of a new commitment to continue to innovate and improve ourselves. We are determined to make the results of this accreditation a motivation to work harder, smarter, and better and are committed to continuing to improve the quality of the Tridharma of Higher Education in order to realize the Vision and Mission of the Study Program and Faculty. Thank you to all parties who have been involved in the accreditation process in all Study Programs at FEB. May Allah SWT/God Almighty always provide guidance and strength to all of us in carrying out our duties and responsibilities to achieve the Vision and Mission," concluded Jubaedah at the end of her interview.

The Sharia Economics Study Program is expected to continue to develop and innovate in facing global challenges, as well as answering the needs of industry and society. With this superior accreditation, UPNVJ certainly strengthens its position as one of the leading universities in Indonesia that focuses on quality sharia economics education.
