HumasUPNVJ - Bandung: A total of 24 members of the delegation from the National Development University "Veteran" Jakarta (UPNVJ) visited the Asian-African Conference Museum, the Bandung Mayor's Government Building, and Parahyangan University on Thursday, October 17, 2024.

The visit was made as part of a commitment to expand the scope and improve the quality of education through strategic cooperation. It is also part of a strategic effort to strengthen international cooperation in education and culture.

"Through this visit, UPNVJ not only wants to introduce its culture and academic potential, but also explore collaboration opportunities in the fields of tourism and economy, especially with cities that have international partnerships," said Head of the UPNVJ International Affairs Office, Dr. Bambang Susanto.

"Hopefully, this activity will have a positive impact on the development of academic capacity and improve UPNVJ's reputation in the international arena," he continued.

On this occasion, Bambang brought 23 delegation members, ranging from representatives of UPNVJ students to 10 representatives of Exchange students from Ablai Khan University, Kazakhstan.

"This visit to Bandung is expected to be the first step in establishing closer cooperation, improving the quality of education, and expanding opportunities for students to interact with diverse cultures and education systems," Bambang hoped.

Overall, the UPNVJ Delegation's visit to Bandung provided valuable experience in broadening historical, cultural and potential insights into international cooperation.

This activity is expected to encourage increased cooperation between universities and strengthen cultural relations between Indonesia and other countries. The hope to continue cooperation in the future is also an important note on this journey.
