HumasUPNVJ – The Chancellor of the National Veteran Development University Jakarta (UPNVJ) welcomed students and lecturers from Universiti Sultan Zainal Abidin, Malaysia, as part of a student exchange program. (26/11)

The Sultan Zainal Abidin University group consists of 8 students (7 female and 1 male) and accompanying lecturer Dr. Siti Sabariah Binti Abas who serves as the Head of the Information Technology Study Center of the Faculty of Informatics and Computing. In addition to participating in various activities, Siti Sabariah is scheduled to be a guest lecture speaker for the Data Science Study Program. Meanwhile, the students will have a sharing session with the Student Executive Board of the Faculty of Computer Science (BEM FIK), followed by a cultural tour. This program is expected to strengthen the academic and cultural ties between the two universities while providing valuable experience for all participants.

Anter Venus, the Chancellor of UPNVJ welcomed the arrival of students from Universiti Sultan Zainal Abidin, according to him this activity provides many benefits, one of which is strengthening academic ties between UPNVJ and Universiti Sultan Zainal Abidin "Today, by welcoming guests from Malaysia, students and accompanying lecturers, we also start this meeting by signing the MoU for the Student Exchange Program. Please note, the student exchange program between FIK UPNVJ and FIK UniSZA has been established since 2019. UPNVJ is committed to fostering global connections and enriching academic experiences. This program embodies our dedication to cultural exchange, collaboration, and personal growth. Of course, the signing of the MoU aims to expand and continue further cooperation between universities," said Venus.

The activity continued with a meeting between each UPNVJ student and UniSZA.
